

Lexisnexis achieves Investors in People Silver status

LONDON, 5th June 2018 – LexisNexis UK (LexisNexis.co.uk), a leading global provider of information and analytics, today announced that, following a rigorous assessment process, it has recently been reassessed by Investors in People (IIP) and is delighted to have been upgraded from Accredited to Silver.

Achieving the IIP Silver accreditation recognises a highly empowered workforce, supportive management and an embedded commitment to develop individuals.

Paul Devoy, Head of Investors in People, said: “We’d like to congratulate LexisNexis, Investors in People accreditation is the sign of a great employer, an outperforming place to work and a clear commitment to success. LexisNexis should be extremely proud of their achievement.”

The Investors in People accreditation is held by 10,000 organisations across the world and enables organisations to benchmark against the best in the business on an international scale. The Standard defines what it takes to lead, support and manage people well for sustainable results.

Commenting on the award, Katherine Cumberbatch, HR Director at LexisNexis UK, said: “At LexisNexis we are passionate about personal growth and helping our employees reach their full potential. We are therefore delighted to have been awarded this international accreditation, which demonstrates our commitment to high performance through excellent people management.”

About Investors in People

Investors in People is the Standard for people management. The international people management Standard defines what it takes to lead, support and manage people well for sustainable results.

With a community of 14,000 organisations across 75 countries, successful accreditation against the Standard is the sign of a great employer, an outperforming place to work and a clear commitment to sustained success.

Based on a tried and tested framework and a rigorous process of assessment, organisations that meet the Investors in People Standard proudly display their accreditation to the world because they understand that it’s people that make the difference.

Since 1991, the standard has evolved to keep pace with modern practices. The current sixth generation was launched internationally in 2015.

There are four levels of accreditation; Accredited, Silver, Gold and Platinum.
